Obituary

Doris Bell was born on July 27, 1928, in Portsmouth, Virginia, to the late John and Rebecca Bell. She received her education through the Portsmouth Public School System.

Doris was employed as a Licensed Practical Nurse (LPN) at the Boston Medical Center until she retired. Doris was a member of the New Hope Baptist Church and served on the Gospel Chorus until she became ill. She was a missionary to many people and generously helped others in need. Doris enjoyed cooking and spending time with family and close friends; also, Doris LOVED to travel.

Wednesday, October 14, 2015, the Lord called Doris' name. Even though our hearts are saddened, we know that “to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord.”

Doris is predeceased by husband, Isaac Hendricks, James “Skinner” Williams, one son, Riley Hendricks, one sister, Francis McGlone, and three brothers: John Williams, Jack McGlone, and Lee Bell.

She leaves to cherish her memories and to continue her legacy; her children: Barbara Jean Brown (John), Isaac Hendricks I (Denise), John Hendricks and Deacon Michael Hendricks Sr. (Johnniemae); her sisters: Celestine Howell, Stella Johnson (Kerry), Gloria Odom, Rita Richardson and Delesta Ware John); her grandchildren: Tracy Hendricks, Keith Brown, Keri Hendricks, Isaac Hendricks II, Michael Dennis, Ada Dennis, Michael Hendricks Jr, Rebecca Johnson, and Brian Hendricks; 25 great-grandchildren, 4 great-great-grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Poem

*You can only have one mother
Patient kind and true;
No other friend in all the world,
Will be the same to you.
When other friends forsake you,
To mother you will return,
For all her loving kindness,
She asks nothing in return.
As we look upon her picture,
Sweet memories we recall,
Of a face so full of sunshine,
And a smile for one and all.
Sweet Jesus, take this message,
To our dear mother up above;
Tell her how we miss her,
And give her all our love.*

Acknowledgements

The family would like to thank our extended families and our church families. Without your prayers, calls, visits, support and love, we would never have made it this far. The light God gave you shined so brightly for the love you have shown to us and we're forever indebted to you. May His grace always be there to protect and watch over you.
